

Issue 1: July 2009

Keep updated contents at a glance

1. Client management on the web goes live
2. Online tutorials
3. Current offers
4. Support

The screenshot shows a login form with a red header bar containing the text "» Login to PROFIDA". Below the header, the text "Please enter your login and password." is displayed. There are two input fields: "Login" and "Password". Below the "Password" field, there is a checkbox labeled "I accept the terms and conditions". At the bottom of the form is a blue "Login" button.

Profida Web Edition is here!

We are really excited to let you know that Profida has launched its online version.

A version is available online so try it out today. Go to:

Online Tutorials

Profida's new web edition is simple and easy to use. But if you are new and want to see what sort of functionality is available then we have a collections of tutorials for you to view.

They cover off the functionality of the main areas of the client management edition: From searching for a client online to adding in a new insurance policy into their portfolio.

Find the new tutorials online at:

Offers!

If you are considering moving across to Profida then this offer is one for you. For a limited time we are offering to do your data migration for FREE.

This is a great cost saving, saving you anywhere from £500 - £2500 depending on just how much data you own and the structure it is currently in.

We all know data migration is one of the cost considerations we take into account when moving across to a new system. So this will make the decision a little easier!
